

Comprehensive Vocational Evaluation

Referral Source: Jane Doe, Vocational Rehabilitation Counselor, VR Services

Consumer Name: Joe S.

Evaluation Date: October 11, 2017

Reason for Referral

Client is a 59 year old divorced female who was referred for a comprehensive vocational evaluation. Client is interested in VR services because client would like assistance with training, post secondary assistance and finding employment. Referring counselor is interested in determining a suitable vocational goal

Vocational Aspirations

Client has expressed vocational goal of becoming a Medical Equipment Repair Technician. Client is interested in attending a 2 year college in receive training in this field.

Client History and Expectations

Client was born in Newark, NJ in 1965. Client has two brothers. Client is the oldest sibling. Client is presently unemployed.

Client lives with husband for 21 years. Client met at staff's office in Atlanta, GA.

Client graduated in 1983 from Henry Snyder High School in Jersey City, NJ. Client received a regular education diploma. Client has attended training as a Database Administrator to create Crystal Reports, which explains data using detailed spreadsheets, at Learning Labs. Client did not receive a certificate for this training.

Client holds an active certification as a Chef that client has held since 1995

Client has worked at Applebees Restaurant where client was employed as a cook. In this position he served as a line cook and sous chef. Client performed cooking duties including following recipes and producing high quality plates both design and tastes-wise. Client also helped in the prep and design of all the food and drink menu items. Client held these positions from 1985-2009.

Client has a valid driver's licence and his own vehicle.

Client lives with husband. Client receives Social Security Disability Insurance (SSDI) since 2011.

Client reports that disability (Orthopedic - Spinal Cord/Back) causes client to be unable to lift over 50 lbs. Client struggles with lifting heavy items. Client states that he cannot squat. He has trouble stemming from his back that flows to client's knees. Client experiences weakness in his right knee.

ORTHOPEDIC - SPINAL CORD/BACK CARDIC

Client states no criminal record.

Client reports that he is very helpful and a team player. Client is good at taking orders and being a good leader. Client is a good troubleshooter, where client makes things happen. Client is dedicated and works well independently.

Client struggles with growing old. Client struggles with being a good Samaritan that is taken advantage of.

Client dream job would be becoming a singer.

Client's expectation is that client would like to have help with training, post secondary training and help finding a job. was assessed in a private office at ABC Solutions where client sat on a couch.

Summary of Results

Summary and Expectations